PAST EVENTS

Eastern Iowa Tour

LeClaire, IA / May 23, 2011

Eastern Iowa members travelled to LeClaire, Iowa for a look around at some local specialties. Our tour began at Antique Archaeology, home base and store from the History Channel TV Show, "American Pickers". We didn't run into any of the stars from the show, but we had a fun time looking around at the 'picked' goods and were given an overview of how the show and store coordinate! After that we headed over to River View Dental Specialists, an Interior and Exterior design project by chapter member Dorothy Schalk, completed in August 2010. Our event ended as we headed to Blue Iguana Mexican Restaurant for Margaritas, Dinner and a chance to sit and get to know each other better. Thanks to Antique Archaeology & River View Dental Specialists for opening their doors for a tour and to all members who joined us this month!

THANK YOU TO OUR CHAPTER SPONSORS!
